

Emma Chattin, Executive Director (She, Her)

Rev Emma Chattin graduated with a BS in Psychology, and has worked in the fields of Electronics, Training & Development, Human Resources, Customer Service, Sales (Domestic & International), and Church Administration. She became an ordained minister (Reverend) in Metropolitan Community Churches in 2004, a denomination founded in 1968 by and for the GLBT communities, and currently serves as the Support Pastor for the Metropolitan Community Church of Northern Virginia. She also serves as the Executive Director of the TransGender Education Association of Greater Washington DC. Emma is a founding co-facilitator of support groups for the Trans community, parents of Trans-youth, and Trans & Gender Expansive Tweens & Teens. She lives in Northern Virginia with Heather, her partner of 24+ years.