

Kristen Remers, Clerk (She, Her)

Kristen is a long-term resident of Fairfax County. She is a retired Federal Employee with extensive experience in Federal Acquisition and Information Technology Implementation, who transitioned immediately after her retirement from Federal Service. She supports the Transgender Education Association and both on-line and in-person safe spaces for people who are in every phase of transition. She holds an undergraduate degree from Randolph-Macon College, a Master of Science in Computer Science from The George Washington University, and a Master of Science in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University.