

Willow Woycke (She, Her)

Willow Woycke, is a parent, spouse, cybersecurity engineer, and advocate for the LGBTQ+ community. With four remarkable kids, and a more remarkable wife of 29 years, she is incredibly proud of her family. Willow has worked in, what is now called, cybersecurity for 30 years. She is also the chair of the Pride Inclusion and Diversity Employee Resource Group at her employer. Willow began advocating for the LGBTQ+ community, in a small way, in the late 1990s. She was born in Wisconsin, but moved to Virginia in 1988, and she and her wife have lived in the Herndon area most of that time. Willow is active in advocacy groups for LGBTQ+ rights, specifically transgender youth. Willow facilitates a TGEA sponsored meeting of parents of transgender teens and tweens in Loudoun county.
